I started fooling around with guitar when the guitar was bigger than me. I started getting serious with it around the time KISS came out. I was playing some lead guitar by around 15 or 16. That's when I became interested in getting a band together.

My grandpa and uncle Randy were always a constant influence in guitar playing. Mike was the first bass player I'd ever worked with and we learned a lot together. Mike had a birthday party/practice at my house and invited 4 girls from Madison High School over and that's how I met my wife Pam. We've been married 22 years now and have 2 daughters

I've played in the following bands in this order:

- Stiletto
- The Hellbenders
- Mirage
- Osiris
- Mantis
- Harem Scarem
- Torpedo Alley
- Lost Angel (Played guitar on Destination CD rel. 1998 and Psychosomatic CD rel. 2000)

Searum is going to be a lot of fun because it seems like we're all pulling in the same direction with our playing and goals.
